

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Betty Broscha was born in Humboldt, South Dakota, and graduated from Humboldt High School in 1961; and,

Whereas, Betty married Dale Broscha in 1961, and to that union, a son and daughter were born; and,

Whereas, Betty began her 30-year career with the state of South Dakota at The University of South Dakota in the Student Union office and at the Alumni office under the direction of Claricie Collins; and,

Whereas, Betty moved to Pierre in 1984 and continued her career in the Health Department's Division of Medical Services under Director John Jones; and,

Whereas, In 1987, Betty relocated to the Health Department's Minnehaha County Community Health Services office with the WIC Program and the Bright Start Home Visitation Program; and,

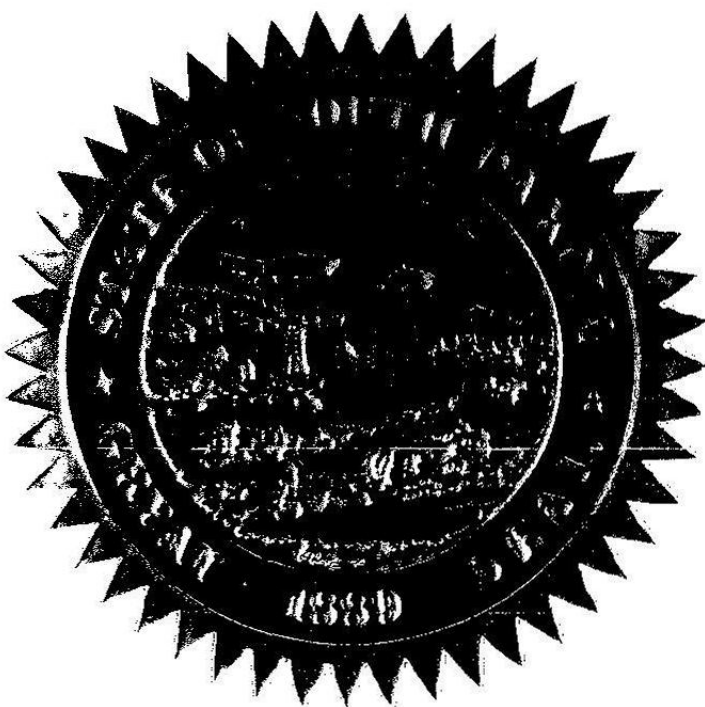

Whereas, Betty served as secretary under five regional managers during her tenure at Minnehaha County Community Health, including Diane Josephson, Kathy Schmaderer, Chris Qualm, Matt Heisel, and Linda Joy Vanhove; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement on December 8, 2007, and to congratulate her as colleagues, family, and friends gather on December 7, 2007, to celebrate this milestone in her life:

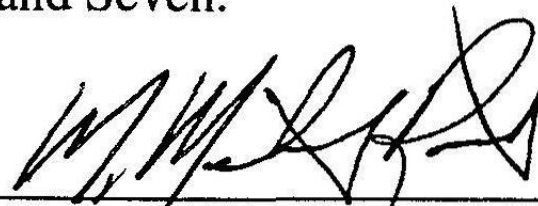

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 8, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and colleagues in the Department of Health in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
